

Eat Muskmelons They Are Great

Somers Bros.
Jun15d

RUSH W. KIMBALL, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon
Office removed to 21 Broadway, Wauregan Block.
Hours: 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 p. m. Sundays 3 to 4 p. m. Telephone 561d

For Wedding
Gifts
We are showing the most complete stock of SILVER and CUT GLASS ever before shown by us, and of the newest designs and best makes.
For Graduation Gifts we can certainly supply your wants.

John & Geo. H. Bliss.

Ankle Strap Pumps
For Ladies
in a large variety.

Patent Leather,
Gun Metal,
Russet Calif.
$2.00, $2.50 and $3.00
See Window Display.

Ferguson & Charbonneau,
FRANKLIN SQUARE.
Jun15d

Having purchased a large quantity of the well known

"Club Cocktails"
manufactured by
G. F. HEUBLEIN & BRO.,
we will sell them as follows,
viz:

Quarts $1.00
Pints50
Half Pints35
Individuals15
(Two for 25c)

Wauregan House Cafe.
The Parker-Davenport Co.
Proprietors.

Wooden Mantels
Quartered Oak Finished White
Cypress Mantel Shelves
LARGE VARIETY AT
FRED C. CROWELL'S, 87 Water St.
Open Saturday evenings until 8 o'clock.
Jun15d

Lithia Tablets
50 for 25 cents Each Tablet will make a glass of sparkling lithia water.

DUNN'S PHARMACY,
50 Main Street.
Jun15d

OUR Negligee Shirt
LINE
IS NOW COMPLETE.

The Handsomest showing of new fabrics and colorings we have ever attempted. Cool, perfect fitting and comfortable.

SUMMER UNDERWEAR in all weights, made knee length, full length or in Union Suits.

McPHERSON'S,
The Hatter, 101 Main St., City
May15d

Dunnam's Coconut
CARDWELL'S
It is a good Coconut.
Jun15d

The Bulletin

Norwich, Saturday, June 25, 1910.

VARIOUS MATTERS

This is St. William's day.

Haying has begun in the suburbs.

The Sunday school picnic season is due.

Dealers report a big sale of lawn swings.

Friday was certainly an emergency calendar day for July.

The week's heat has been severely felt by infants and the aged.

Closing out summer stock at Lawler's millinery, 17 Broadway.—adv.

There will be a change in the rates of the New Haven road to go into effect July 23.

The June moon has been fine for evening outings this week, but tonight begins to wane.

Halle club restaurants will be closed today on account of Rose Fete at Glanhouer.—adv.

At the Holy Cross commencement on Thursday the degree of A.B. was given James E. O'Brien of Norwich.

Services at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Crescent beach, are held on Sunday by Rev. P. J. Nolan of Hartford.

A conference for Episcopal church work will be held at Cambridge, Mass., July 2-4, which will be open to all church men and women.

The twenty-third convention of the German Catholic societies of Connecticut will begin in Pilgrim's hall, in Hartford, next Saturday.

District nurses have had a good chance to judge the full effect of the hot wave, having had an unusually large number of calls since last Saturday.

Rev. J. C. Robbins of the Philippines will speak at the Central Baptist church both Sunday morning and evening. The evening service will be a union of the three Baptist churches.
You are invited.—adv.

A new Saturday train from Providence for Plainfield at 7.45 p. m., was announced Thursday by the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, in an order of the schedule change.
It will begin running today (Saturday).

To prevent robins from stealing cherries, place a string of sleigh bells in the tree, attach a string to the bells and when the birds come flying down with open beaks, pull the string, and the bells ringing, and see the robins fly off, writes a correspondent.

According to the recently issued report of the New England Board of Fire Underwriters, giving in detail the fire losses for the past year, Norwich is among the highest per capita and total losses in the state. There were 139 alarms, giving a total loss of $300,- 154, and a per capita loss of $12.64.
The burning of the Shannon building is responsible for the great loss.

NATIONAL BARACA CONVENTION

Will Be Held at Yonkers and Rev. W.
T. Thayer Will Be One of the Speakers.

Rev. William T. Thayer, pastor of the First Baptist church, will be in Jamestown, N. Y., during the week of July 10, in attendance upon the national convention of the Baraca Unions.
This is an interdenominational convention of men's Bible school classes and the convention will be held at the Yonkers Hotel, on Wednesday, July 13, at 10 a. m. Mr. Thayer will preach on Sunday, the 10th, as one of the convention preachers and will deliver an address during the following week on "The Purpose of the Bible School Class."
It is expected 1,500 Bible schools will be represented by 2,000 delegates.

EMERY WHEEL BROKE

Edward Sherblum Injured at Porter's Shop.

Edward Sherblum of Lafayette street, who is a former member of the P. Porter & Son Co.'s shop, was painfully injured while at work a few days ago. He was sharpening a tool on the rapidly revolving emery wheel when the latter broke and one of the pieces of rock struck him on the head, causing a bad gash on one side. He will not be able to work for several days and he finds that sleeping is not pleasant just at present.

REV. H. E. WISE.

Health is Much Improved and He Can Preach Every Sunday at Redlands.

The friends of Rev. Herbert E. Wise and Mrs. Wise, formerly of Norwich, but now of Redlands, Cal., will be interested to learn of Mr. Wise's improved health. He is able to preach now every Sunday. Till he had a new burglar in Redlands near Smith's Heights and are comfortably settled in it at present.

Reception for Mrs. Richardson.

Wednesday afternoon a very pleasant reception was given by Mrs.
Charles Sweetser at her home, in East Norwich, in honor of her mother, Mrs.
William Richardson, 82 years of age.
The age of twelve of the guests, eleven ladies and one gentleman, ranged from 25 to 84 years.

At 4 p. m. the hostess served a delicious repast of cake, strawberries, ice cream and confectioneries, each guest receiving a pretty bouquet of roses at the suggestion of the elderly persons.
Music and singing was enjoyed a while, which made the afternoon pass very pleasantly. Despite the advanced ages of most of the guests the afternoon was greatly enjoyed, and added another bright spot to the lives of those whose days are far spent. The reception was much enjoyed by all and one long to be remembered. Guests were present from Griswold, Jewett City, North Stonington, Preston, Mystic, Norwich and East Norwich.

Uncle Sam's Letters.

The list of unclaimed letters at the Norwich, Conn., postoffice for the week ending June 25, 1910, follows:
Mrs. Allen, George Assaly, George C. Barnes, W. Browne, Lewis Cohen, Charles Combs, Angelo Croyen, C. P. Iricucci, Caroline Pickett, Prof.
R. H. Goodwin, W. H. Grugliotti, Mrs.
George Grigson, J. O. Lerche, Joseph Lukerski, John Lusk, George Assaly, Charles, Florence Mally, Amy Marvin, Main, P. Palmer, Frank Pearson, Helen Radwin, George Assaly, Oswald Strong, Orlie Tenebrie, Duke Napbour Yemable.

Display of Dahlias.

Mrs. E. C. Leete of Trading Cove has a fine display of dahlias in her window.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Chester G. Ambler and her son, Joseph A. Ambler, are spending a week in Danbury.

Miss Corinne E. White is at her home in this city for the summer vacation, after a successful year's teaching in Gardner, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robson of Mattapan, Mass., have returned after several days' visit here, the guests of Henry R. Taft.

Mrs. F. E. Hull of Baltic and Miss Ethel M. Hull of Wallingford are at their summer quarters in the Hoxie house, South Coventry.

Miss Ella Lucas of New York, who has been spending several days with her mother, Mrs. Kate Lucas of Rockville, is now in Norwich.

Winifred C. Young returned from New Haven Friday to his home on Union street. In his first year at Yale he has maintained an honor stand for the entire year.

George R. James of this city, a graduate of the Yale Medical school this year, has been assigned to the position of house physician at the hospital at Wethersfield prison.

Cecil G. Young, who was graduated from Yale Wednesday, had an honor stand for his entire course, and was awarded one of six graduate scholarships given to seniors with a high stand in the scientific department.

Among the graduates from St. Thomas' Seminary on Thursday were Hor-mides Portelance and Harry Coleman of this city. They have been studying for the priesthood and will be assigned further courses during the summer.

Mrs. Lillian Young of Union street returned Friday from New Haven, where she attended commencement.
Mrs. Young was chaperon for her son, Winifred C. Young, and Miss Cornell Cannell of New Haven at the senior prom.

WEDDINGS.

Flanndreau-O'Brien.

Word was received here Friday of the marriage of Robert L. Flanndreau, resident manager for the National Biscuit company, to Miss Marie O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis O'Brien of North Main street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel W.
Russell of Manchester, N. H., on Friday, in that city, and they are now in the honeymoon at the Hotel Windsor in New York. Mr. and Mrs.
Flanndreau are both well known in this city and will extend their best wishes, as both are popular in a large circle of friends.

Nichols-Phillips.

The home of Rev. Wm. T. Thayer at 8 o'clock Friday evening George E.
Nichols and Miss Annie Phillips were united in marriage by Rev. Mr.
Thayer. They were unattended, and left in the evening for a two weeks' wedding trip.

The groom is employed by the Southern New England Telephone company in the construction department, and has lived here many years, while his bride is also well known here, but a native of Montville. They will reside in West Main street.

Clark-Mitchell.

A quiet wedding was celebrated on Friday evening at 7 o'clock when Rev.
Mr. S. Kauffman united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage Herbert N.
Clark of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Fred N. Clark, and Miss Fanny J.
Mitchell of Uxbridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell. Several of their friends were present at the ceremony. A reception followed at the home of the groom's parents in West Main street, where Mr. Clark will spend the summer at Block Island.
The groom is a plumber, and a former attache of the Auditorium.

Editor Pipes Shortcake Lay.

To us the shortcake has ever been the gayest part in the cheerful book of spring. Some of the world's most budding seasons as early as the discovery of the "first" robin by the prominent citizen of the town reported through some press association. Others admit it is here only when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the strawberry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

As the waitress in the peck-a-boo
waist shoves the shortcake to us over
the counter all gloom and sadness
fade from our minds and we are bound
merely in the trees. To see the rich
cream merge gently with the
blood-red juice of the berries to our
happiness. Jove on his Olympus had
a number of well-loved delicacies; but
when the hoarse bark of the summer
park's press agent assails the hearing.
Still others find it in the hurdy-gurdy
of the town or the vacation resort told
er. As for us, not until the straw-
berry shortcake arrives with its crim-
son message of cheer do we feel the
dawn of spring above the baseball
bleachers.

RONALD M. KIMBALL,
Central District.

BRISSE G. STAMM,
West Chelsea District.

HAZEL L. BANFIELD,
Greenville District.

VALEDICTORIALS OF THREE GRADUATING CLASSES.

Closing Exercises of School Year Largely Attracted, Slater and Town Halls Being Filled—Commendable Work by the Participants.

Beautiful cool weather, in marked contrast to last year, favored the several classes who held their graduation exercises on Friday afternoon and evening. Following the plan of last year, the exercises were held in the Central district were held at Slater hall, which was completely filled. The graduating class and the chorus were seated upon the platform, the teachers occupying seats in the front of the hall, where the members of the board of education were also seated.

The participants acquitted themselves with much credit, each being entirely unprepared for the occasion, the music proved a feature of the evening. It was of the highest order and the exercises were well conducted. The choir, which was in three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad, which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave a solo, Sing On, received loud applause, while the boys' and girls' chorus numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased everyone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applause, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applau-
se, while the boys' and girls' chorus
numbers were decidedly pleasing. The
orchestra of sixteen pieces pleased ev-
eryone and showed the careful training
of the school. The choir, which was in
three parts, Be Glad Ladies and Lad,
which was directed by Miss Tarrant, gave
a solo, Sing On, received loud applause